Dear husband

Yours written on the day you sailed for H. came this eve. It is the first mail since the boys came home. I am all pretty well. Baby has utter double teeth since you left home.
A letter came from G. I will send it to you. I had written him before the mail came this eve. The Steamer goes tomorrow I hope she will get up 1/2 and a couple of packages for G. By her I had also written Charles, I do not want anything put in unless he is on some one will select some than written medicinal.

I want you to get some yds. of linen for boys shirt-bosoms, also another measure of "McIntire" or bottle of Varnish and I think you have not spent enough to paint the house. He says the wooden screw to his work bench is defective and wishes a new one +

I had your letter not been that brief had read at Pirabun brought home It may be of some use here it may

He says he will buy some yds. of linen, - so cannot come up in this with him cut one get - but - then, Will please ask Mr Spooner if there can not - clothes with our boys make ~~any~~ ~~the~~ in the room thing, put - ironed clothes and stockings in particular I sent - Albert white stating by G. the first time they went to the bush they were missing.

Our little boys have got the idea that the Agricultural Society want to buy peach stones - Jerry tells them a dollar a hundred - and that C. & Q. will dispose of them, Sammy has got over his house perhaps there I shall write to Costigan & Coulter about them. We cannot find that old saw coffee mill tho' we have looked the house over and when we wanted to grind some pepper no mill was to be found.

That - Shua table at - Puna hoi I think you had better get - if you go for the heel-street, I heard G. say the table was up in one of the chambers in Mr Rice's old house, I do not find any shoes for heels tho' shoes for her some time hence, I have heard that Juliette Cook is coming with you - I do not think I shall write you again

Ask about the peck stones of the children They are all very good stones We all send love to you

Yours

L. E. G. W.
