The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society Library

The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society was organized in 1852 by the sons and daughters of American Protestant missionaries, sent to Hawaii from 1820 to 1848 by the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. In the nineteenth century, the Society supported missionary work in the Pacific. Today, the HMCS operates the original mission houses in Honolulu as the Mission Houses Museum, and maintains the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society Library. The Society is a private, non-profit, educational organization.

The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society Library was established in 1922, when Territorial Governor George Carter donated his large Hawaiian collection to the Society. The Library collections have continued to expand, and today its resources include more than 12,000 books and pamphlets, as well as large manuscript and pictorial collections.

In addition to general Hawaiian history, the Library collections include the following material:

1. Archives of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association (now called the United Church of Christ, Hawaii Conference);
2. Unpublished letters, journals and reports of the Protestant missionaries to Hawaii;
3. Hawaiian-language books;
4. Micronesian-language books.
