Miss Rooms, Boston, July 20th 1836.

M<sup>r</sup> A Wilcox

My dear Sir

Yours of the 28th instant is just received. Should you have M<sup>r</sup> Hill's draught on the Hartford bank for $100, you will convey to Miss Hart, such portion of this as she may need, & use the balance toward your own outfit. I thought it better to send the whole to you, believing, as Norfolk is not far from Newington, that you could furnish her with what she needs without much inconvenience. Be careful to keep accurate accounts of all expenditures. Any person in Newington who does business in Hartford, will presume pay you the money for the draught. On you may put your <sup>name</sup> on the back of it, & send it to the Bank by any trusty person, & draw the money—

If you should need something more it may be furnished upon your writing to me, to that effect—

Remember your connection with the great cause of Missions, & endeavour to let your whole spirit & conversation be such as to do honour to that cause & leave a good impression on the minds of all who know you, when you shall be far away, on the other side of the globe—

May God bless you & the young Lady who is to be your companion, & all your fellow labourers. In haste

Your truly Wm. Amstrong—
