Dr. Bro. Wilcox

Although if I mistake you and your two associates are my debtors in letters, so there is an opportunity I drop you a hasty note.

We have had a visit of two days from br. Bliss. He gives us an interesting account of his station.

We have nothing of special interest to communicate concerning our place.

Br Forbes writes us to day that his people are in an interesting state of feeling.
Sister Forbes is more unwell than she has been some but little.

Bro. Van D. man, as usual

I believe.

Mrs. A. is still nawaliwali.

She writes with me in love to you two, also Bvs, Lynnan & Coan with their companions. In haste

Your Br. in Christ
